Governor Scott Appoints Judge Harvey L. Jay, III and Allen Winsor to the First District Court of Appeal

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the appointment of the Honorable Harvey L. Jay, III and Allen Winsor to the First District Court of Appeal.

Jay, 53, of Jacksonville, has served as a Fourth Judicial Circuit Court judge since 2012. He was previously a partner with Saalfield Shad from 1991-2012. Harvey began his legal career as an associate with Howell, Liles and Milton in 1988. Harvey was awarded the 2015 Jurist of the year award by the Jacksonville Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates. Harvey received his bachelor's degree from Stetson University and his law degree from the University of Florida. Jay fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Judge Simone Marstiller.

Winsor, 39, of Tallahassee, currently serves as the Solicitor General in the Office of the Florida Attorney General. He previously practiced with Gray Robinson, P.A. from 2005-2013. He was an associate at King & Spalding, LLP from 2003 to 2015. He began his legal career as a law clerk to the Honorable Ed Carnes on the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. Winsor received his bachelor's degree from Auburn University and his law degree from the University of Florida. Winsor fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Judge Robert T. Benton.
