State Government Personnel Structure

State government is a major employer in Florida. offering a diverse range of challenging and rewarding jobs, with a comprehensive compensation package and opportunities for career mobility.

Employees with the State of Florida fall into a variety of different and autonomous personnel systems each with their own set of rules and regulations, collective bargaining agreements, and wage and benefit packages. The State Personnel System, comprised of employees in the Career Service, Selected Exempt Service and Senior Management Service pay plans, is the largest of these systems and is the focus of this narrative. The State of Florida employment application is used to apply for vacancies within the State Personnel System.

Most state jobs are in the Career Service pay plan. The Career Service provides uniform pay, job classification, benefits and recruitment for the majority of non-managerial jobs within state agencies. The Senior Management Service (SMS) includes upper management and policy-making jobs. Middle management, such as bureau chiefs, professional jobs, such as physicians and attorneys, and supervisory jobs are included in the Selected Exempt Service. Employees can move between agencies without any loss of state benefits.

Temporary jobs are funded by Other Personal Services (OPS) appropriations. OPS employees receive an hourly wage and limited benefits.

Non-State Personnel System agencies are agencies in which jobs do not STA fall under the Career Service.

Selected Exempt Service or Senior Management Service pay plans and their employment procedures may differ. These employers may or employers may or may not accept the State of Florida employment application. Additionally, their job titles and salaries may not be comparable to those in the State Personnel System.

How to Search for Vacancies

Individual state agencies are responsible for announcing their job vacancies and making hiring decisions. Generally, agencies accept job applications for advertised vacancies only. However, agencies may accept applications for certain positions on a continuous basis. A completed State of Florida employment application is required for each job vacancy to which you apply.

There are several ways for you to obtain state job vacancy information:

- · Access the People First job information web site on the Internet at: https://iobs.mvflorida.com
- Contact individual State Personnel System agencies directly for information regarding their employment opportunities.
- · Contact a Florida One Stop Career Center for job information on and other employment opportunities. To locate the office nearest you, check your telephone directory under "Workforce One Stop Career Center" or visit: http://www.employflorida.com

Completed applications should be submitted by fax to the People First Service Center at (888) 403-2110.

How to Market Yourself

Prior to completing an application for any job, gather specific information about the duties of the job and relevant knowledge, skills and abilities required by carefully reviewing the job vacancy announcement or by contacting the employing agency, if necessary.

Use this information to ensure your application, cover letter, resume and other supporting materials address how your experience and education fulfill these requirements.

How Candidates are Selected

The first step an employing agency takes in the selection process is to review the applications which have been received to determine who is eligible to compete further in the selection process. Job-related criteria are used to determine those applicants who will be asked to participate in additional assessment steps such as an oral interview, a work sample exercise. or a proficiency test. The job-related information gained during the selection process will assist the hiring official in making the final selection decision. Veterans' preference and Affirmative Action goals are also considered by the agency in the decision-making process.

If, because of a disability, you require a special accommodation to participate in the application and selection process, please notify the hiring authority in advance.
