

Senator Corey Simon was elected to the Florida Senate in 2022 for the Florida Senate District 3. Prior to that he served as the Chief Executive Officer of Volunteer Florida, appointed by Governor DeSantis in December 2020.

Simon was born in Pompano Beach, Florida. Simon earned a B.S. in information studies from Florida State University in 1999. Simon is a former Florida State University and NFL football player. His career experience includes working as an athlete alumni engagement and development director. Simon founded Corey's Kids and has served as the president of Big Bend Pop Warner.