Re: Amendment as to retirement date only.

Dear Governor DeSantis:

Please accept this amendment to my November 14th letter. I am amending my retirement date as a Circuit Judge for the 17th Judicial Circuit to become effective at the close of business on March 6, 2023. I have completed 32 years of judicial service for the people of the State of Florida and Broward County. It is now time for me to explore other personal and professional goals.

Out of respect for the operation of the 17th Circuit, I am delaying my actual departure from the bench to afford both the Judicial Nominating Commission and the Governor's office the opportunity to select a qualified replacement. It has been a pleasure to have served as a Circuit Judge and an Assistant State Attorney. My career has been extremely fulfilling and rewarding. It is my wish that my eventual replacement will find similar professional satisfaction.

Sincerely,

Charles M. Greene

Circuit Judge
