MIAMI –The Third District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominating Commission has been asked to provide Governor Ron DeSantis with nominees for the vacancy in the Third District Court of Appeal created by the passing of Judge Eric Wm. Hendon. The JNC seeks and encourages a broad, diverse, and highly qualified pool of applicants.

The Commission requests that interested candidates submit a completed application for consideration to Chair, Lauren Morse at laurenm@miamidade.gov and Vice Chair, Paul Huck, Jr. at paul@lawsonhuckgonzalez.com on or before Monday, April 8, 2024, by 12:00 p.m. Incomplete applications, obsolete forms of application, and applications received after the deadline will not be considered.

Applicants in need of guidance should direct inquiries to the Chair. Applicants must qualify to hold office for District Court under Article V, Section 8 of the Florida Constitution. Those qualifications include having been a member of the Florida Bar for the preceding ten years, being a registered voter in the State of Florida, and residing in Miami-Dade or Monroe County at the time of appointment. The Commission will issue a separate press release regarding the dates and times for interviews.

Instructions for submission:

- The current Judicial Application form must be used. It may be downloaded in pdf and Word version from Governor Ron DeSantis' website or The Florida Bar's website. Applicants should ensure they are using the correct and current form.

- The complete signed application must be submitted by Monday, April 8, 2024, at 12:00 p.m. Applications submitted after the deadline will not be considered. Applicants must submit a recent photograph, preferably as a cover page. To assist the Judicial Nominating Commission in its review of applications, all questions in the application must be fully and completely answered. In addition, applicants should include current and accurate contact information for themselves, as well as for judges, co-counsel, opposing counsel, and references to facilitate the requisite background investigation. If requested information is missing from an application, the Judicial Nominating Commission will consider the applicant's lack of effort in submitting a complete application.
- All applications must be submitted in one file in .pdf format. A second .pdf version of the application must also be provided with redactions to protect any personal information not subject to public disclosure as permitted by Section 119.071 of the Florida Statutes. The two .pdf files should be named in a "last name, first name" format. For example, James Madison should submit two files named: (1) Madison.James.pdf and (2) Madison.James.REDACTED.pdf. Applications not submitted in the correct format may be rejected and paper applications will not be accepted. Please send both electronic copies by email to laurenm@miamidade.gov and paul@lawsonhuckgonzalez.com. Please also send the redacted .pdf file to each of the nine Commissioners listed below.

Applicants receiving interviews will be separately notified of the exact date, time, and location of the interview. Separate public notice shall be provided when the interview schedule is approved by the Commission.

The Commission will hold an organizational meeting on April 8, 2024, at 6:00 PM. At such organizational meeting the Commission will set the interview dates and location. The Commission may take up other matters as appropriate. The meeting will be held via Microsoft Teams video and audio conferencing at:
