

RICK SCOTT
GOVERNOR

SUMMER LEARNING DAY IN FLORIDA

WHEREAS, public agencies, non-profit organizations, schools, universities, museums, libraries, and summer camps across the country will celebrate the annual Summer Learning Day on July 12, 2018; and

WHEREAS, this is a day to recognize the importance of summer learning opportunities for students and their families; and

WHEREAS, Summer Learning Day is designed to highlight opportunities for students to engage in learning activities over the summer and to support local summer programs that benefit children, families, and communities; and

WHEREAS, summer learning programs maintain and advance students' academic success, support working families, keep children safe and healthy, and send students back to school ready to learn; and

WHEREAS, First Lady Ann Scott announced her 2018 Summer Literacy Adventure to help our state's students maintain and improve their literacy skills throughout the summer months; and

WHEREAS, Florida is proud to join with the National Summer Learning Association and its national partners in promoting learning activities for our students; and

WHEREAS, summer learning is a component of our collective effort to ensure all students graduate from high school prepared for college, careers, and life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rick Scott, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing July 12, 2018, as Summer Learning Day in Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 1st day of June, in the year two thousand eighteen.

Governor