

Rick Scott, Governor

Charles T. Corley, Secretary

COMMUNITIES FOR A LIFETIME

Florida Communities: Prepare for Tomorrow, Today!

AARP

Communities for a Lifetime

A statewide initiative that assists Florida cities, towns, and counties in planning and implementing improvements that benefit residents of all ages with an emphasis on aging in place.

Prepare for Tomorrow, Today!

- Florida's demographics are changing.
- Today in Florida there are almost 4.5 million seniors, and this is expected to double to by 2030.
- Every 10 seconds someone in this country turns 65. That's about 10,000 people each day!

Communities for a Lifetime Unit

Program Areas

Housing
Volunteer and Community Services
Transportation
Health & Wellness
Senior Employment
Intergenerational

Faith-Based Focus

1. Escambia/Santa Rosa Partnership
2. Faith-based Survey
3. Best Practices
4. Brandon Partnership
5. Faith-based Volunteer Opportunities
 - SHINE
 - Silver Edition
 - Health & Wellness
 - DOE/CFAL

Benefits of Becoming a Community for a Lifetime

- Provide seniors an opportunity to remain independent in their own homes and communities.
- Increased safety and services through coordination of community planning and partnerships.
- Improved social, intellectual, and physical activity of residents.
- Help children to grow and prosper, while promoting intergenerational activities.
- Promotion of senior issues in community planning.
- Maximizing local resources.

Join Us

By working together to create
Communities for a Lifetime –

EVERYONE BENEFITS!

Contact Us

Larry E. Baxter
Chief, Elder Rights Bureau
Department of Elder Affairs
850-414-2058
Baxterl@elderaffairs.org
