

MY LIFE's Youth Day at the Capitol

Welcome
TO FLORIDA'S CAPITOL

Tallahassee
Florida

Advocacy, Education and Inspiration April 25, 2013 3 to 6 p.m

Youth who have experience with mental health, substance abuse, foster care, juvenile justice issues are invited to take part in this unique event and have their voices heard by elected officials, while learning first hand about our government and the democratic process.

MY LIFE Tallahassee youth group and Palmer Munroe Center Teen Council are planning MY LIFE Youth Day at the Capitol to raise awareness about mental health, substance abuse, foster care and other issues facing Florida youth.

FREE event!

Lunch will be provided
Transportation available from designated areas

Youth will interact with state representatives, senators and other officials to share ideas for improving the services, programs and systems that serve youth in Florida.

Who should attend?

Youth, ages 13 to 25. Family members and youth staff supports are welcome to join the day's activities to show support and encouragement for the youth.

MY LIFE and Youth Day at the Capitol are supported by Magellan Behavioral Health of Florida, Palmer Munroe Teen Center, Children's Home Society and a variety of youth-serving organizations
