FLORIDA’S PLAN AGAINST COVID-19

1. Protect the Vulnerable

2. Increase Testing

3. Promote Social Distancing

4. Support Hospitals and Protect Health Care Workers

5. Prevent Introduction from Outside of the State
FLORIDA PHASE 1
FLORIDA PHASE 1

Received input and advice from prominent physicians, health care system executives, small business owners, elected officials, unemployed Floridians, and law enforcement.

Convened the Re-Open Florida Task Force, which produced a report with recommendations.
▪ Schools remain distance learning.

▪ Visits to senior living facilities are prohibited.

▪ Elective surgeries can resume.

▪ Restaurants may offer outdoor seating with six foot space between tables and indoor seating at 25% capacity.

▪ Retail can operate at 25% of indoor capacity.

▪ No change for bars, gyms, and personal services such as hair dressers.
▪ Vulnerable individuals should avoid close contact with people outside the home.

▪ All individuals, when in public, should maximize physical distance from others.

▪ Avoid socializing in groups of more than 10 people in circumstances that do not readily allow for physical distancing.

▪ Face masks are recommended for all those in face-to-face interactions and where you can’t social distance.
FACTS VS. FEAR

Duval County
As soon as the clock ticked past 5 p.m. on Friday — signaling the limited reopening of beaches in Jacksonville, Florida — people flocked to the shoreline in droves, despite concerns about spreading the coronavirus further.
“Local news aired photos and videos of Florida’s shoreline dotted with people, closer than six feet apart, spurring #FloridaMorons to trend on Twitter after Gov. Ron DeSantis (R) gave the go-ahead for local beachfront governments to decide whether to reopen their beaches during a news briefing Friday. Duval and St. Johns counties have reopened their beaches, while Miami-Dade County officials said they are considering following suit…On the same day that Florida reported 58 deaths from the novel coronavirus — its highest daily toll since the pandemic began …”
“It was a mad dash here for the ocean,” says @randikayeCNN, from a reopened beach in Jacksonville, Florida.

But while coolers and surfboards were prevalent, social distancing methods were sadly less so.

“... If you take the miles of beaches up and down Duval County, there were indeed thousands of people. However, most kept their distance. And there was a lot of sand ... A helicopter shot looks different from a drone shot which looks different from a telephoto shot which looks different from a smart phone shot. The optics are different. The angles are different...”

CONNECT Story

- Florida contracted for the development of CONNECT with Deloitte in March 2011.
- Deloitte was paid more than $40 million.
- In total, CONNECT costs totaled $77.9 million.
- The contract was amended 14 different times.
- When CONNECT was launched in 2013, there were over 100 technical issues.
- These issues were not volume related. These were programming issues from day one.
- Minimal investments had been made in the system itself since then.

Challenges
Challenge: People could not access system to file claim.

Solutions:

• Stood up mobile website
• Built an adapter to transfer data from the new mobile site to CONNECT
• Created paper application
• Arranged free printing and mailing of paper applications with FedEx
• Offered additional areas to pick up and submit applications through CareerSource Florida and local governments
Challenge: People could not call DEO for assistance.

Solutions:

• Stood up 5 call centers with over 2,000 call center agents
• Created training for call center employees in a matter of days
• Took standard call-center training from ten days to two days
Challenge: There are no jobs available for people who are out of work.

Solutions:

• Suspended work search requirements
Challenge: The system was overwhelmed, and people could not sign on to CONNECT to recertify their weeks.

Solutions:

• Suspended bi-weekly recertification requirement
• Added 72 servers to exponentially boost the number of concurrent users on Connect
• Staff drove through the night moving hardware from Orlando to Tallahassee datacenter
• Added sophisticated hardware like a new SAN system, boosting transfer speeds from 300 MB/s to over 3,000 MB/s
• Hundreds of software optimizations to improve the overall stability and performance of the Connect system
Challenge: It was taking too long to get paid.

Solutions:

• Issued an Executive Order to suspend the “waiting week”
• Call to action to all state agency staff to help with filing and processing claims – over 2,000 answered the call
• Continue making hardware improvements to CONNECT system
• Brought in Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles to help verifying social security numbers
