As the result of the resignation of Nineteenth Circuit Court Judge James W. McCann, the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit Judicial Nominating Commission gives notice it is accepting applications for a vacancy on the Circuit Court for the Nineteenth Circuit of Florida. All interested in applying, please note the following.

1. Applications for this Nineteenth Circuit Court vacancy must be received no later than the deadline of February 1, 2021. Applications shall be delivered to each individual Commissioner pursuant to the instructions set forth in this Notice. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered. All applicants must have been members of The Florida Bar for at least five (5) years at the time of submitting their application, electors of the State of Florida, and a resident within the Nineteenth Circuit Court before taking office.

2. Please note the form of judicial application has changed, and you must use the current form of application found online at:

<https://www.flgov.com/judicial-and-judicial-nominating-commission-information>.

3. To be considered, applicants must, without exception, submit the following:

(a) One (1) original unredacted application, typed and bound securely in paper form, to be delivered to the Chair only;

(b) One (1) redacted copy of the application in PDF format, excluding all exempt information under Florida Statutes Chapter 119 (or other applicable public records law), to be delivered to the Chair only;

The original unredacted paper application and the redacted paper copy are to be delivered to:

Manuel Farach, Chair
c/o Fox, McCluskey
3461 S.E. Willoughby Blvd.
Stuart, FL 34995
Telephone: 772-287-4444

(c) PDF copies of the original application shall be delivered via email to each commissioner, including the Chair, at their email addresses listed below. Please note this means the Chair will receive the original and the redacted copies of the application delivered to the Chair c/o Fox, McCluskey and PDF copies of the unredacted application and the redacted copy via email;

(d) All letters of recommendation in your possession that you wish the Commission to consider shall be included as attachments to the original application and the redacted copy;

(e) The financial disclosure information requested in the application, inclusive of a completed Form 6 (Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interest), must be submitted as part of the original application and the redacted application;

(f) A recent photograph of the applicant shall be attached to the original and redacted applications; and

(g) Any additional information which you feel may be helpful to the Commission in assessing your qualifications shall be included as attachments to the original and the copies of the application.

4. Please strictly follow all requests and instructions in this Notice; failure to do so could result in your application not being considered.

5. The Commission strongly suggests that you submit your application as soon as it is prepared and well before the deadline.

6. After the deadline for submitting applications passes, the Commission will determine which applicants will be interviewed. If you are selected to be interviewed, you will be contacted to confirm the date, time, and location of your interview if such date, time, and location is other than indicated in this Notice.

7. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic, interviews will be conducted via ZOOM. The interviews are not presently scheduled but the information to attend via ZOOM will be provided to both the applicants and the public at a later date. If you expect any issues attending via Zoom, please contact the Chair.

8. All proceedings of the Commission, except for deliberations, are open to the public. Accordingly - and subject to applicable Florida Statutes - you should not expect your application and information to be kept confidential.

9. If an applicant is nominated, all materials attached to the original application will be submitted to the Governor's Office. Please note the Governor's Office may request additional copies of same.

10. Please contact the Chair of the Commission with any questions about the application process at the following:
