

STATE OF FLORIDA

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER 20-195

(Emergency Management – Termination of Executive Order 20-181)

WHEREAS, on July 31, 2020, I issued Executive Order 20-181 declaring a state of emergency in nineteen counties due to the threat posed by Hurricane Isaias; and

WHEREAS, on August 1, 2020, the National Hurricane Center downgraded Hurricane Isaias to a Tropical Storm; and

WHEREAS, the effects of Tropical Storm Isaias were felt along the entire Atlantic Coast, including tropical storm force winds, severe rain, and storm surge; and

WHEREAS, on August 3, 2020 at 11:00 A.M., the National Hurricane Center and National Weather Service have discontinued all Tropical Storm warnings for Florida; and

WHEREAS, the threats and dangers posed by Tropical Storm Isaias have abated; and

WHEREAS, the conditions warranting a state of emergency as it related to Tropical Storm Isaias have now ceased to exist.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RON DESANTIS, as Governor of Florida, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article IV, Section 1(a) of the Florida Constitution and by the Florida Emergency Management Act, as amended, and all other applicable laws, promulgate the following Executive Order, to take immediate effect:

Section 1. Executive Order 20-181 is terminated, effective immediately.

Section 2. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect the validity of any action taken or obligation incurred in reliance upon Executive Order 20-181 while in effect.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed, at Tallahassee, this 11th day of August, 2020.
