Re: Resignation from the First District Court of Appeal

Dear Governor Scott:

After much deliberation and prayer, I am resigning from the First District Court of Appeal, effective close of business December 31, 2015.

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve the people of Florida's First Appellate District since February 17, 2010. I trust I have served them well and conducted myself on and off the bench to the high standard they deserve.

My time on the court has been challenging and rewarding, in equal measure, and I leave here a better lawyer, a better public servant, and a better person.

Respectfully,

Simone Marstiller
Judge
