Re: Resignation of Circuit Court Judgeship

Dear Governor Scott:

I am extraordinarily grateful for your recent decision to elevate me to the First District Court of Appeal. I very much appreciate the confidence you have shown in me by the appointment. I will do all that I can to diligently serve the people of the First District.

As a result of my appointment to the District Court of Appeal it is necessary to vacate my current position. Accordingly, please accept my resignation from my current position as Circuit Judge, Group 11, effective January 6, 2015, my anticipated date of commissioning as a District Court of Appeal Judge.

If you or your office needs anything further with regard to the resignation or commission, please let me know. Thank you again.

Very truly yours,
