Governor Rick Scott Appoints Coleman Lee Robinson to the First Judicial Circuit Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the appointment of Coleman Lee Robinson to the First Judicial Circuit Court.

Robinson, 44, of Pensacola, has served as an Assistant State Attorney for the First Judicial Circuit since 1994. He also served as a Special Assistant United States attorney from 2007-2009. Robinson is a member of the First Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee. Robinson received his bachelor's degree from Florida State University and his law degree from the University of North Carolina. He fills a vacancy created by the appointment of Judge Ross Bilbrey to the First District Court of Appeal.

Governor Rick Scott said "Lee has demonstrated dedication to Florida families throughout his career. I am confident he will do a great job on the First Judicial Circuit Court bench."
