Governor Scott Appoints Janet Carney Croom to the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the appointment of Janet Carney Croom to the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit Court.*

Croom, 46, of Vero Beach, is a sole private practitioner and from 1997-2014 practiced with several Indian River County law firms and was an Assistant Attorney General for the State of Arkansas from 1994-1996. Croom received her bachelor's and law degrees from University of Arkansas. She fills a vacancy created by the resignation of Robert A. Hawley.

Governor Rick Scott said, "During her more than two decades of practicing law, Janet has demonstrated a dedication to fairness and the rule of law. I am confident her experience has prepared her very well to serve honorably as a Circuit Court Judge for families in the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit."
