RE: Resignation as Circuit Judge
Last Day of Employment March 31, 2016

Dear Governor Scott:

Please accept this letter as an announcement of my resignation from the Office of Circuit Court Judge for the Twentieth Judicial Circuit, effective March 31, 2016.

It has been a privilege to serve the citizens of the Eighth and the Twentieth Judicial Circuits. Over the past thirty five (35) years, I have served as an Assistant State Attorney, County Court Judge and, for the past eighteen (18) years, as a Circuit Court Judge.

I will always reflect upon my tenure with gratitude for the confidence and support of my peers and the community.

I look forward to this new phase of my life and the opportunities ahead. I am grateful for the experience and the ability to have served in these important positions as I continue to work and serve in the community.

Respectfully yours,

Hon. Cynthia A. Pivacek
Circuit Court Judge

cc: Honorable Michael T. McHugh, Chief Judge of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit
Scott A. Wilsker, Trial Court Administrator for the Twentieth Judicial Circuit
Sharon Suhar, Chief of Personnel Services for the Twentieth Judicial Circuit
