Governor Scott Appoints Mark David Wilson to the Monroe County Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the appointment of Mark David Wilson to the Monroe County Court.

Wilson, 49, of Key West, is currently a Special Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida, and Chief Assistant State Attorney for the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit. He received his bachelor's degree from Rutgers University, his master's degree from Yeshiva University, and his law degree from Pennsylvania State University. Wilson fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Judge Wayne M. Miller.
