Governor Scott Appoints Michael P. McDaniel to the Tenth Judicial Circuit Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the appointment of Michael P. McDaniel to the Tenth Judicial Circuit Court.

McDaniel, 45, of Lakeland, is the owner of the McDaniel Law Firm where he practices primarily civil litigation. From 2010-2013, McDaniel served as a Senior Rule of Law Advisor with the U.S. Department of State and was assigned to aid U.S. Military efforts in Afghanistan. McDaniel began his legal career as an attorney for C. Ray McDaniel, P.A. and Jack T. Edmund, P.A. in 1995. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of South Florida and his law degree from Nova Southeastern University. McDaniel fills the vacancy created by the resignation of J. Dale Durrance.
