The Sixth Circuit Judicial Nominating Commission announces a judicial vacancy in the Circuit Court of Sixth Judicial Circuit due to the retirement of the Honorable William R. Webb. The Sixth Circuit Judicial Nominating Commission seeks applications for nomination from all persons who meet the eligibility requirements set forth in the Florida Constitution.

Applicants must be able to fulfill the Constitutional qualifications before assuming the office of Circuit Court Judge, which require the person to be a member in good standing of The Florida Bar for the preceding five (5) years, a resident of the Sixth Judicial Circuit, and a registered voter in the State of Florida.

Application forms for the judgeship may be downloaded from The Florida Bar's website, www.floridabar.org. Applications can also be obtained from the Commission Chair, Kevin D. Brennan, whose address and telephone number appears below. As of August 1, 2014, there have been changes made to the Application for Judicial Seat, including, but not limited to, the requirement to complete a Form 6, Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interest. Applicants must complete the current Application for Judicial Seat.

The original completed Application with attachments, one copy of the original with attachments that has been redacted as required by Fla. R. Jud. Admin., a flash drive with both original and redacted Applications with attachments, and a recent photo must be delivered to Kevin D. Brennan, Chairman, Sixth Circuit Judicial Nominating Commission at the address below no later than noon on Tuesday, September 22, 2015. Incomplete applications and applications submitted after the deadline will not be considered.
