RE: Flags at Half-Staff in Honor of Deputy Michael Magli

On Wednesday, February 17, 2021, Deputy Michael Magli was killed in the line of duty. Deputy Magli served the community for over seven years with the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office. In 2013, he began his career as a criminal justice specialist and was assigned to the Patrol Operations Bureau shortly after. Deputy Magli will be remembered as a hero for his dedicated sacrifice to protecting the community.

To honor the memory of Deputy Michael Magli and his service to our state, I hereby direct the flags of the United States and the State of Florida to be flown at half-staff at the Pasco County Courthouse in New Port Richey, Florida, the Pinellas County Courthouse in St. Petersburg, Florida, and the State Capitol in Tallahassee, Florida, from sunrise to sunset on Tuesday, February 23, 2021.
